

Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce
International Programs at Texas A&M
Presents the International Friendly Business Award
Sponsored by Wells Fargo Bank NA

Second Award: November 2009

Bryan-College Station is an international community. More than 4000 International students and 600 international faculty and scholars are in our community this year. It is estimated that with international faculty and scholars who bring families, buy automobiles and send their children to our local schools and international students together bring as much as $150 million to our local economy.

In an effort to recognize those businesses that go out of their way to provide a welcoming business environment for international faculty, scholars, students and other international residents of the community, the Chamber of Commerce and Texas A&M University are offering the International Friendly Business Award.

The award winning business are revealed during the Brazos Valley Worldfest in November of each year and will receive special recognition in the Chamber newsletter.

Nominees must have the following Qualifications:

- Business must be located in Bryan or College Station
- Business must be a member in good standing of the Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce
- Business must show that it has met the needs of a broad cross-cultural clientele that is inclusive rather than exclusive

Anyone may nominate a business. To determine if the business is a member of the Chamber of Commerce visit <http://www.bcschamber.org> and click on Membership Directory.
