

- Michael O'Quinn currently holds the position of Interim Chief of Staff and Chief Strategy Officer at Texas A&M University. He assists the university president with strategy development and organizational effectiveness for the university. In this role he serves as an “untier of knots” for the A&M leadership.
- He previously served for nearly 20 years as Vice President for Government Relations at Texas A&M University. In his role, Michael was responsible for engaging Austin and Washington, D.C. regarding A&M's government-related interests. He was Texas A&M's liaison with elected state officials, members of Congress, federal agencies, and national higher education association efforts seeking to advance the goals of Texas A&M and higher education.
- Michael has served in various roles during his 35-year career with The Texas A&M University System.
- Prior to his service at Texas A&M, he held various positions in the office of United States Senator Phil Gramm.
- Michael, Class '86, received a Bachelor of Science degree in political science and a Master of Public Administration degree, both from Texas A&M University.